Lutheran High’s Winterim week

God’s Wisdom & Design: Humanity’s Abilities,
Exploring Teaching,
Be Prepared - Not Scared: Problem Solving,
Leadership Games, and “OK Mister, I’ll Make a Man out of You!”.

These were some of the course selections from this year’s Winterim session at LHS. Winterim is held the first week back after Christmas break where students can choose their unique pursuit of interest from subject offerings by the Lutheran High faculty. Students acquire new knowledge, expand learning beyond the classroom, and explore interests. Each course is a full day of experiments and experiences, field trips, movies, and even learning a few new skills. Also included this year was “Coaching Basketball 101, A Shakespeare Sampler, History in the Movies, Outdoor Education & Adventure, Presentation Tools for Confident Speaking, and “Oooh...Something Shiny”.

Overall it’s always a very interesting week. Students write a paper at the end of the Winterim week for a grade in the course, but we hope they gain wisdom and insight into new and challenging topics. It’s another way of preparing our students for Christian Leadership in their future vocations.

Sage Stapel, LHS Freshman, helps in classes at Bethlehem Elementary during Mrs. Reseburg’s Exploring Teaching Winterim Course.

Maddy Pfannkuch, LHS Junior, practices ‘signing’ during Ms. Billings’ American Sign Language (ASL) and the Deaf Culture Winterim Course.
